   Convention Article 61(2); Administrative and Financial Regulation 14; Arbitration Rule 28

9.1. The parties shall defray the direct costs of the proceeding in equal parts, without prejudice to the final decision of the Tribunal as to the allocation of costs.

9.2. In determining how costs shall be apportioned between the parties, the Tribunal may assess the reasonableness and proportionality of costs claimed and take into account factors it considers relevant, including the procedural conduct of the parties and/or their counsel throughout the proceedings. Cost items that may be recoverable include but are not limited to arbitration costs (arbitrators’ fees and ICSID’s administrative costs), lawyers’ fees, and experts’ costs.

9.3. By letter of 8 April 2015, ICSID requested that each party pay US$150,000 to defray the initial costs of the proceeding. ICSID received Claimants’ payment on 23 April 2015 and the Respondent’s payment on 30 April 2015.

9.4. ICSID shall request further advances as needed. Such requests shall be accompanied by a detailed interim statement of account.

10.3. The Tribunal may deliberate at any place it considers convenient.

11. Procedural Language, Translation and Interpretation

11.2. Documents filed in any other language must be accompanied by a translation into English.
11.3. If the document is lengthy and relevant only in part, it is sufficient to translate only relevant parts, provided that the Tribunal may require a fuller or a complete translation at the request of any party or on its own initiative.

11.4. Translations need not be certified unless there is a dispute as to the content of a translation provided and the party disputing the translation specifically requests a certified version. In any event, the party so disputing the translation shall advance the costs of procuring a certified translation, without prejudice to the decision of the Tribunal as to which party shall ultimately bear those costs.

11.5. Documents exchanged between the parties in a language other than English under §15 below (Production of Documents) need not be translated. When such documents are submitted to the Tribunal, they will be translated in whole or in relevant part.

11.6. The testimony of a witness called for examination during the hearing who prefers to give evidence other than in the English language shall be interpreted simultaneously.

11.7. The parties will notify the Tribunal, as soon as possible, and no later than at the pre-hearing organizational meeting (see §19 below), which witnesses or experts require interpretation.

11.8. The costs of the interpreters will be paid from the advance payments made by the parties, without prejudice to the decision of the Tribunal as to which party shall ultimately bear those costs.
